Dear Friends,

We have just celebrated the birth of our Nation. A great Nation, founded on Christian principles and Godly values of freedom for all. Lately, my wife Susan and I have been heartbroken to hear the many stories of so many people who have overdosed on drugs. Their lives in turmoil and defeat. Their dependence on drugs leaving them anything but free. They often get started on drugs in their teens and find themselves still entrapped in their 20's, 30's and 40's. They did not start out wanting to be addicted to drugs, but they believed the lies of the enemy. Just the other day, Susan was told of a mother in her thirties, who had a baby two weeks ago and overdosed on heroin. She had just been given her older daughter back from foster care. Thankfully her Mother and daughter found her and she is currently hospitalized. Please keep her in your prayers. We all have family members or know someone who has battled with drugs.

Like it or not, we are in the midst of spiritual warfare. It's not against people who oppose us, who slander us, who attack us, who hurt our feelings, who seemingly block our way to victory, it is instead against what Paul tells us are "the rulers, the authorities, the powers of this dark world and the spiritual forces of evil in the heavenly realms." You see, the enemy is evil and he's on the attack to destroy you and your family. Jesus said of Satan, "For there is no truth in him." When he lies, he speaks his native language, for he is a liar and the father of lies." John 8:44. "Your enemy, the devil, prowls around like a roaring lion looking for someone to devour." 1Peter 5:8.

But, we who believe in Jesus can make a difference in people's lives. We have the truth that sets people free. When you're around a young person, be sure to smile and tell them that Jesus loves them. That Jesus wants to be their best friend. Someone they can talk with and turn to everyday. Talk to them about the great men and woman in the Bible and how they defeated the enemies that came against them and their nation. We need to be people of prayer and let us not forget that Jesus gave us the authority to trample on snakes and scorpions and over all the power of the enemy and nothing will harm us. Luke 10:19.

I hope you will bring a young person or family member to the "Praise and Worship Night" at the Fire Escape Coffee House in Weymouth on July 25, 2015.
